ENGLAND, LONDON---SOUND SPEECH BY PRIME MINISTER CURTIN OF AUSTRALIA "The war in the Pacific has now raged for more than two years. When it commenced, the whole of the Australian forces that had been trained were in the Middle East with all their equipment. Overnight as it were, the freedom and safety of Australia was subjected to dire peril. The whole defense capacity of the country had to be transformed. The war which Japan started can now only end in the complete defeat of Japan. I have no doubt that our Allies and ourselves will see that struggle through to its complete conclusion.
